In the long ago vocal advertising was carried on thru town criers, equipped with handbells and stout lungs. Nowadays ones does it electronically without strain on vocal cords or bellows. Chandler will be telling all of you to come to the Lions festival which is to be staged on the Lions Den grounds, South Cedar st.

Raise Funds to Aid Car Victim

Friends of two automobile accident victims have started funds to aid them in meeting hospital and medical bills and the other expenses that have occurred by reason of their injuries.

Contributions may be sent or left at the Frankfort State bank, as Al Hochberger, the cashier, is treasurer of both funds. One is the Mrs. Russell Piper Fund; and the other is the Marie Tewes Fund.

Mrs. Piper, a resident of Green Garden has been hospitalized and unconscious since May 4 when the car she was driving was struck by a truck. Friends of the Piper family are endeavoring to help meet the mountain of obligations that have resulted and a committee was formed, with William H Bettenhausen as chairman, William C Bettenhausen, Alvin Bruggeman and Reuben Schmidt. They will be joined by others to help raise funds.

Marie Tewes was injured almost a year ago when a car in which she was riding overturned southeast of Frankfort and the injuries she suffered have left her paralyzed. The Tewes family was from Frankfort but Marie and her mother are now residing in Orland Park. Vernon Hansen and Dale Kratzberg head up the committee in charge of the Tewes Fund.

It is the hope of those in charge of both funds that they can be closed by August 1. Persons who would like to aid their neighbors may contact members of the committees or Mr. Hochberger at the Frankfort State bank.

Mokena Troop Carries off High Honors at Boy Scout Camp

by Arthur Omland
Scoutmaster Troop 40
During the week of July 8-14, Boy Scout Troop 40, of Mokena, participated in the outdoor encampment at the Scout Reservation near Morris, Ill.

The 18 scouts and leaders had one of the best camping experiences this writer can remember. The Mokena contingent was made up of Robert Munch, senior patrol leader and bugler; Charles Kelch, Kenneth Lorenz, Mark Muehler, patrol leaders; Don Alexander, assistant patrol leader and quartermaster, Dan Williams, assistant patrol leader and scribe, George Stanisz, assistant patrol leader; James Murdoch, Ron Tischer, Roger Olson, Ronnie Badten, Eric Jacobson, Jim Miller, Ray Lorenz, John Kropp, Louis Akers, Albert Janner, assistant scoutmaster, and the writer, who is scoutmaster.

The entire program at the troop level, was carried out by the junior leaders, with Mr. Omland and Mr. Janner working in an aiding capacity only.

Munch, Kelch, Ken Lorenz, Alexander, Williams and Muehler, attended a Junior Leaders' training course at the Reservation the week prior to the troop's arrival. This training proved invaluable and prepared the boys for their jobs in the troop encampment.

As always, Troop 40 took the lead on Monday and claimed all but one of the scoutcraft area awards. Also the first place inspection flag. On Tuesday and Wednesday they held the second place flag. Thursday they tied for second place and Friday an undisputed third. This is no small task, as competition becomes keener as the week goes on and other troops correct their previous mistakes. The inspectors have to look hard near the end of the week, because where the human element is involved, there is always a chance for error and all they have to do is find it. One mistake on some scout's part and his unit steps from first to third place with no trouble at all. Just a few points between first and last place.

Robert Munch and Kenneth Lorenz passed the requirements for Star Scout. Dan Williams passed first class. Swimming and life saving merit badges were earned by Robert Munch and John Kropp. Cooking and wild life management merit badge were earned by Munch, K. Lorenz and Kelch. Nature merit badge were earned by K. Lorenz and Munch.

Miller, Munch, Alexander, Muehler and Kropp almost completed their first class requirements. Olson, Jacobson, Tisher and Badten worked on second class requirements and Stanisz and R. Lorenz on first class.

On Wednesday, Parents' Nite, Troop 40 again took the canoe race, with the same team of Munch and Kropp. The team of Tisher and R. Lorenz placed in the candle race, and in the free style Kropp was nudged out of third spot in the second heat.

Thursday night was the Order of the Arrow calling out ceremony and the four candidate elected by the troop were called out by the Chief in a very impressive Indian ceremony. Dan Williams and Mr. Janner are (Continued on Page 3)

Can Enter Queen Contest in Mokena Homecoming Now

Who would like to be Queen of Mokena's Homecoming? This honor, with the usual valuable gift in addition, will be bestowed on the girl chosen queen during the contest that will not end until Homecoming time in August. Application blanks now are available at Boleman Drug store or Swanberg Farm and Auto store in Mokena. The field is open to any girl between the ages of 16 and 21, and the committee hopes that each of the application blanks and there are many will mean an entry in the queen contest.

Homecoming this year will be held Aug. 10, 11, and 12 with fine nightly entertainment for which the homecoming is noted, and a big parade Sunday afternoon with the crowning of the Queen on Sunday evening, Aug. 12.

The co-sponsors of this year's event are the Civic Association and the Lions club. They announce that in addition to the other attractions, a merry go-round, ferris wheel and a tilt-grounds, as well as a kiddy a-whirl rides will be on the ride. All these attractions, the committee feels, will aid in making this year's homecoming the biggest and best yet, with something of interest being planned for everyone in the community as well as visitors.

Fifty per cent of the proceeds will go to the Mokena Community Park fund and the remaining 50 per cent divided equally between the Civic Association and the Lions club. All organizations of the village are invited to have a booth or stand for the three days with 50 per cent of the proceeds to be kept by the organization and 50 per cent being given to the Community Park fund.

All in all, the main event of the year is just a few weeks away and plans are well in hand for a really gala event that will turn Mokena's Front street into a midway bright with lights and with the spirit of pleasure and visiting that is anticipated each year.

Mrs. Theresa Lenz Mother of Mokena Man, Dies in Chicago

Mrs. Theresa Lenz, 83, who lived in the South Shore Country club, Chicago, and mother of Philip G. Lenz, Wolf road Mokena, died in a Chicago hospital July 12 following a short illness.

Mrs. Lenz was a charter member and past president of the South Shore Catholic Women's club and past president of the Women's auxiliary of the N. A. of Retail Druggists. Mrs. Lenz often visited her son and wife in Mokena and made a number of friends here.

Beside her son she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Loraine Carroll, five grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

Services were held Saturday in Chicago with interment in Oak Woods cemetery.

Discussion of the proposed sanitary sewer system for Mokena occupied the attention of village trustees Tuesday night at a special board meeting.

It was believed that estimates of the cost of various phases of the program would be available this week but after some talk it was decided to make changes that will call for a complete revision of figures to keep costs as low as possible.

Until such revision has been made any figures that have been compiled would be useless, Mayor John Searth pointed out.

Robert Hamilton, the engineer who is preparing the preliminary plans and estimates of cost, indicated that the new plans would be ready within the next two or three weeks.

The village will have a booth at the Mokena homecoming this year and the principal exhibit will be of maps and plans of the project. The trustees also will utilize the opportunity to explain details of the plan to those interested.

There will be approximately six miles of sewer mains installed if the program is carried out.

Before the project can be commenced, however, it must be authorized by the voters of the village. The village board will ask the public to approve an issue of general obligation bonds to meet a part of the expense of the undertaking. The rest of it will have to be paid thru the sale of revenue bonds.

As the name would indicate this last mentioned type of bonds would be paid off from revenues collected thru the sale of water and the treatment of sewage.

If the general obligation bonds were approved then the board could call in representatives of bond houses and get bids on those bonds and also on the revenue bonds.

There were representatives from two bond houses at the meeting Tuesday night, and they said they would return, along with others, when the village was ready to seek a market for its bonds.

The program includes the building of a sewage treatment plant, which the state department of public health says is a must for all communities. It is claimed by health authorities that in time septic tanks will be outlawed except in the case of isolated homes.

Some subdividers are already including a sewage treatment plants in their developments. Such a development is planned on the northeast fringe of Lockport and at Orland Park.

At their meeting Tuesday night the trustees decided to hold a big public meeting, when they have all the figures for the proposed sewer program, so the townspeople will have an opportunity to discuss it before an election is called.

"A sewer system is not cheap," the mayor said, "but it is a vital necessity, especially in the face of a steady increase in the population of the community."

TOASTMASTERS DINNER

A special invitation has been issued by the New Lenox Toastmasters to all officials of the village boards of Mokena, Frankfort and Manhattan to attend their dinner meeting. It will be held Monday evening July 23 at 7 o'clock in the Lions den in New Lenox.

Orchard Hill Farm Kindergarten Rates as Special in its Field

Orchard Hill 2-24 inside Tinley A century-old farmstead, which served the Vogt family for generations, is now the home of the Orchard Hill Farm kindergarten, about three miles northeast of Tinley Park, and it is one of the most progressive schools of its kind in the state.

Formerly known as the Vogt farm, it was purchased 12 years ago by Leslie Johnson and the rambling old house was remodeled for his family. Two years later - that was 10 years ago - Mrs. Johnson converted several of the rooms into a farm kindergarten for her own children and those of her neighbors.

The idea caught on swiftly and within a short time the enrollment had grown to almost 70 four and five year olds and they come from Tinley and other surrounding towns. Here town helps preface the little pupils for first grade.

The rolling land provides a fascinating laboratory for studying natural events which occur with the changing seasons. The farm animals, Ginger and Amigo, the horses, Belinda the cow and Patches Pony, become friends.

Field trips into towns, the airport, round house and museum give children a great understanding of the world around them. Teaching of letters and numbers thru these activities helps preface the little pupils for first grade.

This unique kindergarten and its imaginative program has received national recognition thru the Farm Journal, The National Safety Council, the Milk Foundation. Locally, Mrs. Johnson and some of the children have appeared on TV station in May, and on WMBQ in color in a Children's Art Program, "It's Chris".

Last month 19 Latin American educators were enthusiastic guests at Orchard Hill. With the help of the state dept. interpreters, they played the "Farmer in the Dell" with the children and sang the verses in Spanish. These young men and women were delighted with their only visit to a pre-school and were impressed with the discovery of how American children learn about the world around them by using the materials at hand.

The old Vogt farm has grown in size and scope in the last 110 years. It is now humming with the activities of school children as well as the activities of the Johnson family's four children. It sees new things each year, yet keeps its old fashioned atmosphere with sleigh bells and farm animals.

Pick Up 2 Juveniles For Shoplifting

Merchandise found on two juveniles who were picked up last Wednesday in Tinley Park for petit larceny, was identified by local store owners.

Several stores have been plagued by petty thievery during the past year. The stores involved are Vogt's department store, Wichman Jewelers, Skogmos, and Ben Franklin. The total merchandise stolen within the past year amounts to $19.

The two juveniles involved claim this was their first offense.

Thanks Cub Scouts For Helping With Times Distribution

Marvin Smith, manager, and the staff of the Tinley Park Times, wish to congratulate Cub Scouts of pack 272, their cubmaster, John Shaulis, den mothers and parents on their work in distributing 1500 copies of the first issue of the paper in tabloid form to Tinley Park residents July 5.

With two weeks' advance notice, cubmaster Shaulis and the pack committee organized the distribution of the paper so well that the job was completed in three hours.

Many people reported to the Tinley Park Times office of the capable manner in which the distribution was handled.

Thanks and congratulations also are extended to the parents who aided the project. Mr. and Mrs. John Shaulis, 6618 171st st., Mrs. Ritz, 167th and Ridgeland ave., Mrs. Wm. Ging, 6539 Riverside dr., Mrs. Ralph Hays, 6533 Pine Point dr., Mrs. Lynn Gross, 6524 Pine Point dr., and Charles Moore, 7109 W. 170th st. Mr. Magiera is owner of North American Mushroom factory, in Tinley Park.

4-H Group Makes Annual Tour of Members Homes

The members of the Frankfort New Lenox 4-H club held their annual tour July 11, visiting the homes of some 20 members. They viewed projects in beef, dairy, hogs, gardens and were accompanied by Will County Farm advisor Andy Wichlein and assistant Farm Advisor Ken Baily, both of Joliet, and the club leader Ivan Archibald of New Lenox.

Dinner was served at the home of Linda and Marilyn Matasovic at Mokena.

During the day two demonstrations were given, one by Genie Marcoux at her home in Mokena on grooming her Hereford heifer, and by Irvin Tremunde at his home on the use of electricity on the farm.

On July 24 the group will meet in the Lions Den at New Lenox when reports of the tour will be given, notes compared and ideas exchanged.

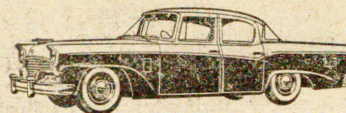

Last year Linda Matasovic, 12 years old, a sophomore at Lincoln-Way high school showed a female Hereford that was chosen as grand champion at the County 4-H Fair in Joliet, and the animal was also chosen as champion in both open and junior divisions at the state fair in Springfield.

Genie Marcoux took second place championship over all grades with her female Hereford at the County 4-H Fair at Joliet, but fared better at the Kankakee and Will County fairs where her entry was grand champion. Genie, is 14 years old and a sophomore at St. Francis Academy in Joliet.

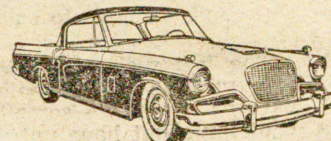

This year's plans are that Linda will show a Hereford heifer, and steer at the 4-H County fair at Peotone and at the state fair at Springfield and Genie will show a Hereford heifer at the 4-H county fair at Peotone, the state fair and the Kankakee county fair.

now full fledged ordeal members and Don Alexander and John Kropp have a year in which to prepare themselves to meet the requirements. Thanks to Kelch, Williams was ready.

On the rifle range, Munch, Kelch, K. Lorenz, Muehler and Olsen qualified. Getting segments with Munch, K. Lorenz, Kelch and Olsen as pro-marks-men, Mr. Janner and Mr. Omland qualified as marksmen.

On the archery range, troop 40 stood alone. Of the 18 members in camp, 15 advanced in rating and two equalled their last year rating. Alexander, Stanis, Jacobson, Murdoch, Badten, Olson and Tisher received Jr. Bowman pins with a score of 69 or better at 20 yds., Munch and Kropp, Bowman Brassard first rank, 130 pts. at 20 yds., Williams and R. Lorenz, Bowman pins, 160 pts. at 20 yds., Muehler and K. Lorenz, Archer pin, 100 pts. at 30 yds. and Mr. Janner and Mr. Omland Silverbow pins, 100 pts. at 40 yds. Alexander and K. Lorenz received archery segments. A segment is awarded by earning an award and then devoting three hours work at that particular area, helping other scouts qualify or improving area.

Troop 40 returned home with the Honor Campers Award again this year. This is a difficult award to obtain and to draw a comparison, last year on Friday troop 40 was still sweating out one requirement. This year the application was signed and turned in by Thursday morning. Troop 40's standard and camping ability has taken tremendous strides forward. They are now busy making plans for a few more outdoor experiences, along with preparing for the fall camp out just six weeks away.

State C. of C. Is Opposing Blue Ballot

The Illinois State Chamber of Commerce will oppose the proposed Revenue Amendment to the Illinois Constitution which comes up for voter consideration at the general election Nov. 6.

A spokesman for the Chamber said in an article in the current issue of its monthly publication, "Current Report," the board of directors unanimously approved the state and local tax committee recommendation to disapprove the proposed amendment. The Chamber spokesman said it voted to reject the amendment because "Although the present article is inadequate, there are several features of the proposal which make it even less desirable than the revenue article now in effect."

Byron Bronston, chairman of the revenue article subcommittee, writing in the "Current Report" points out that the article "opens the door to additional taxes but does not provide that any of these taxes shall be in lieu of the existing types of taxes."

The Chamber urged rejection of the proposed amendment because "we believe the amendment gives too much discretion to the general assembly in the classification of property for tax purposes, gives scope for many new taxes without providing that such taxes be in lieu of present taxes and contains other objectionable features."

Bronston also pointed out objections to the proposed amendment on the grounds that "continuing to live with a revenue article about which we know is preferable to advocating the adoption of new and untried provisions."

"The broad powers that would be vested in the general assembly by the amendment would make that body subject to various pressures with a consequent danger of inclusion in our tax system of inequitable provisions far worse than those now prevailing."

"Although the present amendment has serious defects it is better to tolerate these defects until an adequate amendment can be drawn than to adopt an amendment that contains so many bad features."

The Illinois State Chamber of Commerce recommended that Illinois voters reject the proposed amendment in November.

Hold Former Mokena Youth In Auto Accessories Theft Case

Brian Henneberry, 18, formerly of Mokena and now of 9438 S. Laflin st., Chicago, was arrested Sunday night at Frankfort in connection with the theft of automobile accessories.

Forty-four hub caps, most of them for expensive make cars, seven sets of fender skirts two car seats—one of them new—a pair of taillights—the long costly kind—and some other odds and ends were recovered from an old machine shop in Frankfort.

Henneberry, who was arrested by State Police Lieutenant Gilbert Knater and Frankfort Police Officer, Albert Ziegler after they saw him leave the shop, and found some hubcaps and other accessories in his car, is alleged to have admitted having stolen the stuff. According to the officers the youth is said to have stated that he had stolen most of the things in the Morgan Park area.

Henneberry was removed to the Will county jail and Cook county authorities notified.

Henneberry was quoted as saying that he stole only from new, loose model cars and that he worked alone so he didn't have to divide any of the proceeds from sale of stolen goods.

He had an inventory of all the items in the shed, police said, and it tallied with a check that they made.

A tip that Henneberry was stealing car accessories and using the old shop at Frankfort as a cache was received by Mayor George Sangemeister and turned over to police.

Henneberry is also facing a charge of reckless driving by Mokena officials.

He is still being held in the county jail at Joliet.

The Chamber called attention today to the fact that the proposed amendment which will be on the ballot Nov. 6 is identical to the one rejected four years ago.

Tour to New Salem on Agenda of County Home Bureau Board

At the executive board meeting of the Will County Home Bureau held in Joliet recently, Mrs. Harold Scheer told of plans for the tour to New Salem state park near Springfield next month. The tour will leave from Joliet Aug. 24 at 9 a.m. and return the next day at 6 p.m.

Mrs. Ruth Mozzi, home advisor has resigned due to illness of her mother in Texas and the assistant advisor, Mrs. Betty Shinn has been advanced to advisor, the change to become effective Aug. 1.

A report was given on the attendance at the 4-H day camps throughout the county which is excellent. Also it was announced that one of Will county's 4-H members, Miss Lois Niehus of Plainfield, was chosen out of 64,000 members in Illinois to receive the Danforth scholarship this year. She will attend Camp Miniwanca for two weeks. This is the American Youth Foundation leadership training camp near Shelby, Mich.

The annual meeting will be held Sept. 26 in the Presbyterian church in Wilmington.

Mokena Board Holds Up O. K. On Subdivision

Teachers in Short Supply Says Crackel

The shortage of competent teachers to fill positions in the Will county schools seems to be growing according to the requests for teachers reaching the Will county superintendent's office.

Elementary teachers are still very much in demand, and the prospects for filling all the requests by the opening of the school term in September are not good. The county office has had reports of seven vacancies in the one and two-room buildings in the county; and a large number of reports of vacancies in the primary grades and grades seven and eight in the larger graded schools in the county.

A few high school administrations are reporting that it is difficult to fill some high school positions; practically all high schools in the county will experience an increase in their enrollment this fall, and it is difficult to find the additional teachers needed in some fields to meet the increased demands.

The county office will conduct a special teachers' examination on Friday, July 27, beginning at 9:00 a.m. in the court house for prospective teachers who may want to qualify for a certificate by examination. Persons who have earned sixty semester hours or more, including six semester hours in education, in a recognized institution of higher learning, and have completed the requirements for a degree are eligible to write on this examination. The certificate earned by examination is a provisional certificate which may be renewed every two years by meeting certification requirements.

Any person who is qualified to write on this examination and contemplates doing so, should advise the office of county superintendent of schools on or before tomorrow, July 20.

FIRST AID KITS

Pleasure boat enthusiasts would be wise to make a good first aid kit part of the basic gear of their crafts in case of an accident while cruising, advise the safety engineers for the Institute for Safer Living. Medications in the kit will retain their potency indefinitely if packaged in unbreakable fold up metal tubes which will affectively protect against harmful effects of salt water and salt air.

Ned Merriam, former U. of C. Track Coach, Dies at Tinley

Ned Merriam, 71, father of Mrs. Leslie Johnson of Tinley Park, passed away Monday, July 9 in the home of his daughter, shortly after returning from a six month's stay in California. He was a victim of leukemia. Private services were held Wednesday afternoon in the McKenzie funeral home, Oak Forest.

Merriam who was a retired University of Chicago track coach, coached the Maroon track squad from 1929 to June, 1950, when he retired. He was a University of Chicago track and football star from 1905 to 1908.

Only once in his career, from his prep days at Wayland academy, Beaver Dam, Wis., did he lose a quarter mile race, his specialty. The lone defeat came in the semi finals of the 1908 Olympic 400 meter race, in London, where he was a member of the American team. He also was a star low hurdler.

Merriam was a fullback on the 1903 Maroon championship football team. His coaching positions were at Texas A & M, Iowa State university, DePaw university and Yale, where he led the Elis to an IC4A championship. In 1927, after two years at Yale, he retired to direct his stock and dairy farm at Lake Geneva.

He was drafted by A. A. Stagg as an assistant in the spring of 1928, and in 1929 was appointed head track and cross country coach. His teams won a total of 120 meets in his 22 years on the Midway, and he coached a score of Big Ten and National Collegiate champions and record holders.

Mr. Merriam is survived by his widow, the former Harriet Esterbrooke Wilkes, a University of Chicago alumna, of Lake Geneva, Wis., three daughters, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Edward J. Scully, Elmhurst, and Mrs. John Christopher, Altadena, Calif. and his mother, Mrs. Revilo Merriam of Nekosa, Wis., eight grandchildren, two brothers and four sisters.

Episcopal Pastor Is Married In Ceremony at Park Ridge Church

The wedding of the Rev. Harris C. Mooney, vicar of Grace Episcopal church at New Lenox, and Miss Mary Louise Maynard of Park Ridge, took place June 16 in the St. Mary's Episcopal church in Park Ridge.

The Rt. Rev. Charles L. Street, suffragan bishop of the Chicago diocese, officiated with the Rev. John B. Hubbard, rector of St. Mary's church celebrating the nuptial Eucharist. Thomas Carr of New Lenox attended Bishop Street, and John C. Maynard, brother of the bride and David Grant, served as acolytes for the celebration of Holy Communion.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Maynard of Park Ridge. The groom is the son of Col. and Mrs. James C. Mooney of Gainesville, Ga.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle and taffeta designed on princess lines. Shirred panels fell from the waist into a chapel train. A rose pattern lace traced the neckline. Her veil of silver and white lace was worn by her mother at her wedding. She carried a white prayer book with a bouquet of white phalaenopsis orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Carol Grant was maid of honor and the Misses Patricia Miller and Mary Russell were bridesmaids.

Col. James K. Mooney attended his son as best man. The Rev.

LeRoy Zavadil, Dr. John J. Russell, Norman Reuter and George Maynard, brother of the bride were ushers.

The bride's mother chose a pastel blue cotton-satin dress-makers suit with white accessories. The groom's mother was attired in a delicate pink cotton-satin dress with matching accessories.

The wedding breakfast and reception following the ceremony was held in The Pantry at Park Ridge.

The bride is a graduate of Main Township high school and attended Iowa State college, where she was pledged in Chi Omega sorority. Rev. Mooney attended Riverside Military Academy in Gainesville, Ga. and Hollywood, Fla. He is a graduate of the University of Ga., where he is a member of Delta Tau Delta and Phi Kappa Phi fraternities. Subsequently he graduated from Seabury Western Theological seminary in Evanston. ## Junior Woman's Club Seeks Labels to Get Guide Dog

The public affairs department of the 3rd District Juniors of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs is continuing the project of saving dog food labels from Perk Peak and Vet under the guidance of Mrs. Clark E. Gardner, 3rd District chairman, during the summer months and into the fall.

A good start toward the final goal of 100,000 labels has been made but many more are needed to raise the equivalent of $1,000, Mrs. Gardner said. This $1,000 will purchase a Pilot Guide Dog for a worthy blind person and includes room and board for the dog and new master plus all necessary training and the "getting acquainted period" needed so that the two have a thorough understanding of each other.

"Boxes are being distributed to super markets in your neighborhood," Mrs. Gardner added. "If you do not find a place in your store to deposit these labels please send them to me: Mrs. C. E. Gardner, 14506 South Wentworth ave., Chicago, 27, Illinois.

Utility, Not Size Separates Trees From Shrubs

According to poetess Gertrude Stein a rose is a rose is a rose, but a tree is sometimes a bush and vice versa.

Webster defines a tree as a woody plant ten feet tall or more with a single trunk, and a shrub as a smaller woody plant branched from near the ground.

The distinction is not nearly so simple, says O. L. Follin, field representative of the Day Tree Expert Co. Judicious trimming transpose many vigorous shrubs into trees. In addition, some plants grow to tree size in southerly climes and as shrubs

Gillette Family Holds Reunion

The annual Gillette family reunion was held Sunday in the Haley park in Marley. A picnic lunch was served at noon.

Following the dinner games were played and a program presented.

The program was opened by a prayer given by Iva Sproat. Jim and Jerry Jensen, Wallie and Terry Gougar sang a song. Mrs. Burton Gillette gave the secretary's report.

A gift was presented to E. D. Gillette, Marley, oldest member present and to Donald Lauffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lauffer, youngest. All signed cards to be sent to Mr. and Mrs. Manley Haley, in California, to Mrs. Anna Higgins, Minneapolis. All agreed to hold the reunion next year on the second Sunday after July 4 in the same place, rain or shine. In case of rain the group will rent the church basement, next door. Guests came from Rantoul, Chicago, New Lenox, and Marley.

you put the plant that governs in northern limits of their growing range.

Actually, it's the use to which the size you want. Shrubs usually are raised for their attractive blooms and trees for their shade and majesty in the landscape. More pruning is required on shrubs to increase new twigs and shoots for luxuriant blooms. On the other hand, most shade trees are pruned with little or no regard for the flowering effect.

Notable among the tree-shrub types are crepe myrtle, boxwood and holly. The holly family may spawn medium to large sized trees, but in the North hollies are often used for foundation plantings and hedges where regular shearing is the rule.

In effect, it's not so much the size, but the utility that counts.

Tips on Traffic Safety

By
CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

The coming of summer brings a heavy flow of traffic to our highways. Besides the many motorists who will take to the road for short trips or for vacations there also will be many who will go out for a pleasant drive. With the many cars on the road it is essential that all of us drive with alertness.

Some vacation bound motorists will believe that they must keep the accelerator to the floor so they can enjoy their vacations for a longer period of time. These motorists just cannot be convinced that instead of attempting to lengthen the hours of their relaxation and entertainment they are merely recklessly risking their lives and the lives of others on the highways.

Another problem is sometimes presented by the motorist who is out only for a pleasant drive. This occurs when the motorist does not pay strict attention to his driving duties. By not fulfilling his obligations, he puts it upon the shoulders of the other motorists to keep him from having an accident or from causing other parties to be involved in an accident. Alertness behind a steering wheel will not only prevent accidents, it will also save lives.

A copy of the completely new "Rules of the Road" booklet will be sent to you free upon request. Write to CHARLES F. CARPENTIER, Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois.

REMOVING FISH HOOKS

There's a knack to removing a fish from a hook, but it's trickier still taking a fishhook out of human flesh. The institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Ins. Co. warns that the barb must not be drawn out directly. Push the point forward until it protrudes, cut off barb, then withdraw the remainder. Cleanse the wound thoroly, apply Iodine 2 percent, Zephiran or equal and a dry sterile gauze dressing. Consult a physician, further treatment may be needed. You'd be smart to carry a small wire cutter in your tackle kit just for such an emergency.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The ever-availability of the healing power of the Christ. Truth, will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday, July 22.

Christ Jesus' healing of the centurion's servant, as recorded in Luke's Gospel (chap. 7), will be among the Scriptural passages to be read in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Truth."

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (142:31): "Truth is God's remedy for error of every kind, and Truth destroys only what is untrue. Hence the fact that, to-day, as yesterday, Christ casts out evils and heals the sick."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (86:11): "Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth; unite my heart to fear thy name."

Driving in Mountain Country On Vacation? Then Hear This!

Most auto drivers are accustomed to flat terrain, gentle curves and long sight distances, and as a result sometimes have their vacation travels end tragically on a steep mountain curve.

Because mountain driving requires special knowledge and skills, the National Safety Council offers the following advice if you plan to drive in the mountains:

1. One of the most frequent causes of mountain mishaps is too much downgrade. The average flat-country driver has learned to sense dangerous speed by vibration and wind noise and to expect easy curves. In the mountains, speed may be too fast long before the speedometer or the usual danger signals give warning. Curves are torturous compared to ordinary roads. The inexperienced driver, finding himself entering a curve too fast, may brake too heavily and throw himself into a skid, he may oversteer in a panicky reaction to the pull of centrifugal force, or he may veer across the center line into the path of oncoming cars.

Tough on brakes

2. Runaway speed can result from wearing out the brakes. Using engine compression to hold the car by descending in a lower gear is the only safe practice. Brakes, when used, should be applied intermittently. Constant application builds up terrific heat which not only wears brake bands, but may expand the drums and even cause the hydraulic fluid to boil. The vapor bubbles then compress when the brakes are applied, with loss of positive action. If brakes get mushy, stop and let them cool.

3. Never let your desire to save gas lead you to coast down hill out of gear. Forget about economy. Coasting is so dangerous it is against the law in many states.

4. For the same reason, don't descend in overdrive. Incidentally, it strains an engine to climb in overdrive, so for mountain driving it is best not to use it at all.

5. Many new cars have automatic transmissions which provide less engine compression in the normal driving range than conventional gears. On steep downgrades, the control should be set in the "Low" position. Once you are rolling, this will give engine compression about equivalent to the regular second gear. But change to "Low" before you start down.

6. On the subject of automatic transmissions, don't forget they may creep when the car is stopped unless the control knob is set for "Parking." So in mountain lots or roadside turnouts, don't leave the car to take that snapshot unless the transmission control is on parking and the parking brake is set.

Keep on own side

7. Driving on the wrong side of the road is one of the most common causes of accidents. This can result from too much speed on curves or from passing on upgrades. Sometimes it is from a psychological fear of the drop -- nervous and inexperienced drivers stay so far away from the edge of the precipice that they take their half in the middle.

8. Passing other vehicles on mountain roads is a ticklish proposition and requires more self-control than the flat-country driver commoally exercises. The only rule is -- never take a chance! On winding mountain roads you never get to see very far ahead. Downhill, it often is possible to pass safely, but there is danger in building up too much speed in your desperation to get around. Uphill, the danger is miscalculation of the accelerating and overtaking rate, which naturally is much slower than on level highways. If a driver behind you starts to pass, slow down and let him around as quickly as possible. Don't risk a pileup that may involve you.

9. Don't drink. That's a good idea anytime you are going to drive, but it's even more important in the mountains. The intoxicating effect of alcohol increases with altitude. And speaking of alcohol, it is no good for your car, either. In the thinner air of high altitudes alcohol boils easily. Use a non-alcoholic anti-freeze if the season makes such protection advisable.

10. Stopping on the highway to look at scenery or to take pictures is dangerous. Always pull completely off the road, or use one of the observation parking areas frequently provided.

Check radiator

11. In the thinner mountain air, uphill driving on a warm day may heat the motor enough to cause vapor lock or radiator boil. Vapor lock is due to high engine heat causing gasoline in fuel lines and fuel pump to vaporize, so that the pump sucks on the bubbly liquid with little effect. There is nothing to do but wait until it cools, possibly hurrying things along by wrapping a cloth soaked in cold water around the fuel pump. The radiator of modern cars should not boil if you are not using alcohol, if the water level is checked every morning, if the radiator cells are not clogged with bugs and dirt, and if the fan belt is properly adjusted to move the maximum amount of air. Overheating results chiefly from climbing in too high a gear. Don't take it as an affront to your car's performance if it strains in high gear. Shift -- for pride goeth before a boiling radiator. If it does boil, use extreme caution in removing the cap. Shield your hand with a rag and turn it a quarter turn, which allows steam to escape without spraying boiling water.

12. In a mountain rainstorm, vacuum wipers may slow down or virtually quit on an upgrade, especially on older cars. There is nothing to do but let up on the accelerator frequently to permit a couple of swipes. Electric wipers or vacuum wipers with boosters do not present this difficulty.

13. Sudden weather changes can be extremely dangerous in the mountains -- especially in early spring or late fall when unexpected snowfall is a possibility. Fogs are common, too, and require the utmost caution.

Obey signs

14. The usual forehandedness in preparing for a trip is especially necessary for mountain driving. The prudent driver might carry a spare fan belt, a collapsible bucket to dip water from streams, a lighting circuit fuse if his car uses them, an adequate first aid kit, a flashlight, and a package of red flares -- fuses -- which can be obtained in any auto supply store. The brakes should be adjusted and balanced and the pedal should have adequate reserve. The cooling system should be checked and cleaned, and the spare tire made ready for use.

15. Plan every day's trip to reach a stopping point well before dark. Then the need to hurry won't tempt you to drive too fast, you will avoid the hazards of night driving, your trip will be more enjoyable, and you will get a better choice of hotel or motor court accommodations.

16. In strange country always pay strict attention to road signs. They are not always the same as you are used to, but they are your biggest help on strange roads. So read'em and heed'em.

Long Term Outlook for Business Good Editors Above Investors

Despite current softening in some lines of business, the long range outlook for a continuation of the boom that started after World War II is good, say the editors of "Changing Times", the Kiplinger magazine. In a copyrighted article, "What To Do About Stocks Today," the editors say that America is in the midst of a long term industrial and economic revolution which will be accompanied by a gradual inflation.

Investors are told that the short term outlook for business is hazy. Every once in awhile the economy gets ahead of itself and has to pause. Consumers get temporarily loaded with goods and debt, and need time to digest. Factories get expanded and modernized to the point where, temporarily at least, they can handle more than the demand.

When this happens, say the editors, there is a dip in overall activity and also in profits. A decline in stock prices is likely to precede or coincide with such an adjustment.

But investors who buy stocks for long term growth can have faith in a continuation of America's economic and industrial expansion, the editors say. The reasons for confidence are given in the July issue of the magazine: Such developments as the electronic brain, carbide-tipped cutting tools, which have tremendously speeded up drilling and machining; electronics permitting complicated and remote control of machines; new metals; new knowledge of chemistry and physics feed on themselves and multiply with the results that great segments of industry are seething with change.

"Great advances in research are leading to new and often cheaper consumer goods, new production and distribution methods. The plans of one company to buy a new labor saving, cost-reducing machine forces its competitors to search for still better machines. The revolution is regional, too. The attractions to industry offered by the south and west are causing regional booms.

"At the consumer end, the various floors under income are rising and pushing a greater portion of people into the middle-income group, where they can afford the myriads of new products and services as well as more of the old ones.

"No matter which political party is in power, the government seems committed to bolster business when necessary by means of spending, cheapening money and cutting taxes.

"Other ingredients that will be leavening the economy over the next five or ten years will be new drugs and medical techniques giving people longer lives. Social security and the growing number of pension plans will guarantee more and more oldsters the money to retire on. There is more leisure time encourages consumption of time for everyone, and leisure goods and services.

"In another few years the great crop of war and postwar babies will be reaching maturity, marrying and setting up their own households. This presages another rush for houses, appliances and all the other paraphernalia of modern living.

"Last, but not least, the revival of world trade seems destined to continue."

Social Security Official Looses Flood of Figures

Old age monthly benefits under Federal Social Security were received by 145,136 retired workers in Cook county as of December, 1955. In addition, 100,079 persons in Cook county received monthly benefits as dependents of old age beneficiaries, or as survivors of workers who had died, according to Cornelius R. Schafer, manager of the Social Security Administration District Office, 15339 Turlington ave., Harvey, Ill. Over eight thousand of these beneficiaries live in the southern portion of Cook county which is serviced by the Harvey District Office, Mr. Schafer said.

Nation wide, there were almost four and one half million retired workers receiving $276,941,845 in old age benefits as of December 1955, and an additional three and one half million dependent and survivor beneficiaries. Wives, husbands, children, mothers, aged widows, widowers and parents, receiving $133,670,917.

In the Harvey area workers were receiving $329,099 monthly and dependents of old age beneficiaries and survivors of workers who had died were getting $146,548 monthly, as of December, 1955.

Pointing out the significance of old age and survivors insurance under social security as a floor of financial protection for the aged, Mr. Schafer said that in the nation as a whole today, over half of the non-working aged people are eligible for monthly benefits under the Social Security Program and that in the years ahead the proportion will steadily increase. This, he said will result primarily from the extension of coverage under the 1954 amendments to approximately ten million working people, including most of the nation's farm population.

While benefits can now be paid for as many as twelve months preceding the month of filing an application, if a person is eligible, Mr. Schafer urges everyone to get in touch with his social security office 1) when he reaches age 65, even though he is still working; 2) when he reaches age 72, regardless of the amount of his earnings, or 3) when the family breadwinner dies. People who have been in employment covered by Old-Age and Survivors Insurance but who have become totally disabled should also get in touch with their Social Security District Office, or have someone do so for them, he said.

You can always tell an eight year old, but you usually have to tell him twice. - CHANGING TIMES

Laguna Woods

Several of the neighborhood children are attending the Orland Park kindergarten every morning. They are Debbie and Julie Karre, Dorothy Snedden, Sherrie Brown and Kennie Eckel.

Miss Joan Eckel and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eckel of Chicago left on their vacation last Saturday.

They have planned a three week trip to Canada and California with special side trips to be taken to Lake Louise, and other scenic points enroute.

At a luncheon in Chicago last week I was talking with Mrs. Amanda Roemisch, nee Wunderlich who was a resident of Mokena 73 years ago. Mrs. Roemisch doesn't look her age and I asked her if she wanted me to print it, (ladies take note) she replied, "Oh yes, I'm proud of my age you can say I was born in Mokena Oct. 25, 1882." Mrs. Roemisch is a cousin to Mrs. Rose Beckstein. Mrs. Lydia Ryan and Mr. Erhardt Oswald all of Mokena.

She is also a friend of the Wannamakers and knew Mr. William Semmler, founder of the Semmler Newspapers, and his mother Catherine. Friends in Orland Park are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Phil of 108th st., George Kasper and Otto Prodnow who "run" a farm in Orland Park.

Mrs. Roemisch recalls Christmases spent in Mokena when they were children and would walk to Marlev to see the huge Christmas tree and receive a bag of candy and an orange. She also remembers her grandmother hitching up the team and taking her to Joliet to visit her father's people. Mrs. Roemisch resides in Chicago with her daughter Dorothy McClellan and works part time at "Gordons", on south Halsted street where she meets many of her old friends.

Wednesday, the 18th, a "Come as you are Coffee" was held at nine a.m. at the home of Mrs. John Tabbert. The unsuspecting guests were picked up by their hostesses Mrs. Tabbert and Mrs. Anderson and "driven" to the coffee. Mrs. H. Woodbury was coffee chief and greeted the laughing ladies. Sweet rolls and coffee were served.

Warns Travelers of Fruit Quarantine In So. Florida

Motorists planning on bringing a basket of fruit back from their Florida vacation should be careful where they buy it, warns the Chicago Motor Club. Authorities have set up inspection stations just north of Dade, Broward and Palm Beach counties, now under quarantine, to confiscate all fruit, vegetables and plants purchased in these counties. Produce bought in these counties is being seized to halt the spread of the pesky Mediterranean fruit fly which has been infecting southern crops.

Confiscation is the only way to prevent the spread of this infected fly.

Dade county includes such cities as Coral Gables, Miami and Miami Beach. Broward county includes Ft. Lauderdale, and Palm Beach county includes the cities of Palm Beach and West Palm Beach.

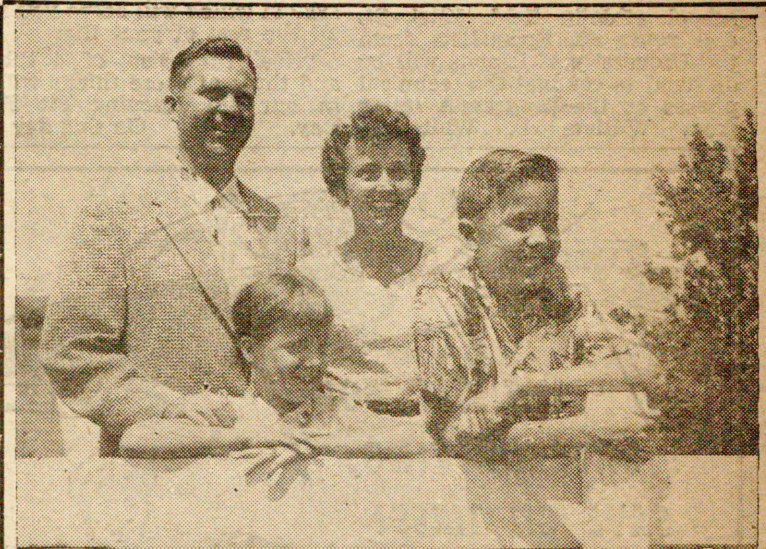

However, the club bulletin warns, a few unscrupulous fruit dealers south of the inspection stations are selling citrus fruit at a low price without telling the purchaser it will be confiscated.

The bulletin explains: "Since the Mediterranean fruit fly whets his appetite on many different kinds of fruits and vegetables, he could become a serious menace to many of the nation's crops if allowed to spread to different parts of the country."

In Russia a shift in public opinion is largely a matter of decree. —CHANGING TIMES.

Field Day

4-H Keeping Fit Field Day will be held July 20, starting at 9 a.m. at the Carl Sandburg High school athletic field, 131st St. and route 45. Specialists from the University of Illinois will be on hand to conduct the technical phases of the program. A letter from William F. Whiteside, assistant farm advisor, to leaders and members regarding the program is as follows:

"If the health 'H' is as important as any other 'H', then you should be spending one-fourth of your club work time on health. Health is more important to you now than it will be at any future time in your life. If you develop a sound and sturdy base for health in your youth, you will build a body, a heart, lungs, digestive and muscular system which will serve you well all the rest of your life."

"Health consists of 4 things, and three of these things will be in our 4-H Keeping Fit Field Day. On this day two

"1. Growth and Body type. Specialists from the University will check each on these three things:

You will be weighed, measured, and your body type determined. These will be plotted on a growth chart, and you can then tell whether or not you are growing up according to schedule. You will be given a food schedule too."

"2. Organic Fitness. You will be checked on heart power, breathing capacity, and endurance. You should have a sturdy heart and lungs, and these tests will tell you something about how fit you are."

3. "Motor Fitness. You will be checked on flexibility, agility, strength and endurance. The scores will show you how fit you are in comparison to other boys and girls."

"If you happen to be overweight or underweight, or weak or have little stamina, we can then recommend a system to build you up. This field day is worth too much to you to miss. The tests are repeated each year so that you can see what improvement you make. If you score 10 points higher than last year, you will receive a health award on your achievement day."

"After the tests we will have a talk on the value of fitness. Here you will be taught tumbling stunts for your own conditioning and for part of your club program."

Parent attendance is invited and would be beneficial. All are asked to bring their own lunch. Milk will be furnished.

Leaders hope that all 4H members who indicated interest in the program when it was first brought up for discussion at club meetings will be in attendance, as it is because of their indicated interest that this fine program is being conducted.

To straighten out any misunderstanding concerning division 'H', Floral Gardening of the 4H fair premium list, those enrolled in this project will be interested in the following information: "The exhibit for all members enrolled in Home Grounds Improvement will be a mixed bouquet consisting of from 3 to 5 annuals or perennials from the project garden. All first year members will exhibit their exhibits in class 73. Second and third year members will exhibit their exhibits in class 74. This will permit first year members to show against each other and not in competition with second and third year members."

A meeting of the Orland Boys' 4H club was held at Maue school, Monday evening, July 9, with Don Gee presiding. The club's choice of who should be King and Queen of the 4H fair was made from a list of candidates read by Darrell Erickson, who also read an agricultural 4-H News letter concerning the South Cook 4H fair, scheduled for August 17, 18, 19. Plans for project tours were made and new members were told how to fill out their entry cards. There was some discussion of another ball game with the Tinley Hustlers. Distribution of 4H fair tickets was discussed and it was thought that the percentage of the donations made for tickets that is to be kept for club use would be used for the purpose of buying educational equipment. Payments for 4H shirts were made. Refreshments were served by Melvin and Leslie Yunker and Joseph Albert.

Roy Bettenhausen may be one of the younger members and only in his second year of 4H club work, but he is proving himself a match for the older and more experienced members of the Orland Boy's 4H club. At one of the meetings held this year after the secretary and treasurers report was read and it was asked if there were any additions or corrections, Roy piped up with, "Yes, you left out the date." Roy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bettenhausen on 175th street, is 11 years old, was a project honor member in his first year of club work and is this year carrying a schedule that would be considered a load for older members.

In addition to his project work Roy finds time for the various activities. He was one of those who participated in the recent electrical activity. One thing is for sure, he will never be found sitting around with time on his hands.

John Lohmann, coach for the Orland Jr. American Legion ball team, which was organized this year, but got a late start, is already planning an early recruiting and training program for next year.

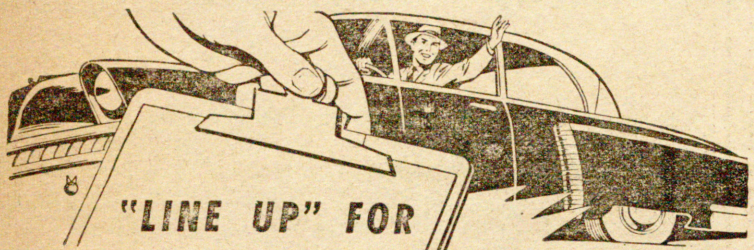

Members of the team are boys in the 16 to 18 year age group.

A welcome is extended to Mr. and Mrs. William Bebarski, formerly of Chicago, who moved, July 5, into the home formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bielek on 104 ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Walker, Arthur and Jimmy, returned Thursday from Blandinsville where they had visited with her sister and family, the Rev. and Mrs. Ray Hamer, since July 5. Visiting, fishing and trips to nearby points of interest were enjoyed.

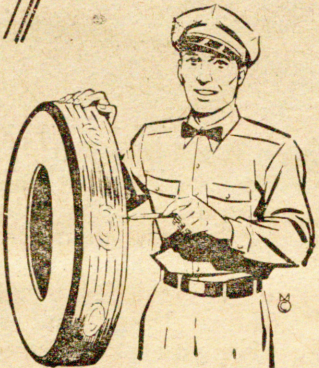

A meeting of the Maue school board was held at the school Tuesday evening, July 10. Current problems and preparatory plans for the new year were discussed.

The Sigmund Bukowskis are spending his vacation working on their home and visiting here and there.

WOTM Meeting

All executive officers, recently appointed for the year, of the WOTM of the Lockport chapter were present at a meeting in the Stuart Culp home, Thursday evening, July 12. The meeting had been called by Sr. Regent, Mrs. Edward Young Sr., of Lockport, for the purpose of bringing all business of the chapter up to date before she leaves for a vacation in Florida.

In addition to the regular business, the Moose family picnic to be held at J.J.'s grove on Route 7 near Wolf road, July 29, was discussed. It is thought that an electric train will be set up for the entertainment of the young fry. Pleasure was expressed over the invitation sent to Mrs. Culp to attend as guest Junior Regent, with her escorts, Mrs. Harrie Shafer Sr. and Mrs. John Clark, the officer's chapter night of the Downers Grove WOTM, Wednesday evening, July 18.

Present were: Sr. regent, Mrs. Edward Young Sr., of Lockport; Jr. regent, Mrs. Stuart Culp, Alpine; Chaplain, Mrs. Charles Dodge Sr., Lockport; Treasurer, Mrs. Harold Michael, Joliet; Jr. graduate regent, Mrs. Lester Koerner, Joliet, and the recorder, Mrs. John Wilson, Lockport. A special auditing committee, of which Mrs. Albert Reeves was chairman, and the other two members were Mrs. Edward Mrosek and Mrs. Bud Slansky of Worth, was also present.

Refreshments of Angel Food cake and coffee were served by Mrs. Culp.

Black Cat Dance

A group of Alpine teen agers had a fine time when they mixed with teen agers of other districts at the Black Cat dance sponsored by the Loyal Order of Moose, in the Moose hall, Lockport, Friday evening, July 13.

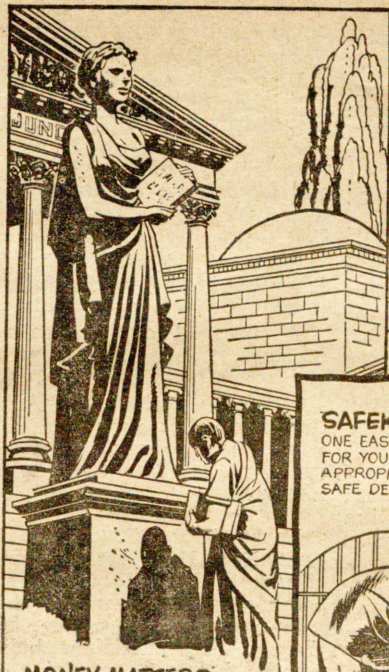

Much imagination and ingenuity were shown in decorating and planning for the party. Black cat and figure 13 cut outs marked the route to the main hall from the front entrance. At the turn of the stairs hung a mirror that had been cleverly marked to give it a broken appearance. At the top of the stairs, six very black half grown kittens nestled contentedly in a cage. To enter the hall one had to pass under a ladder from which hung netting that had been torn in shreds to resemble cobweb. On the walls could be seen spider web cutouts and white paper tombstone cut outs bearing the inscription of certain imaginary luckless people. A large black, wide open umbrella hung suspended from the ceiling in the middle of the room, where it swayed eerily. Richard Novak of Lockport and Marge Marks of Chicago were crowned King and Queen of the dance and the floor was cleared while they did a solo waltz.

Fungus Brought American Victory

Because of a fungus, Washington defeated Cornwallis at Yorktown and received the surrender which meant freedom for America.

This is one of many influences of fungi on human affairs pointed out by Prof. Leland Shanor, University of Illinois botanist.

"The Battle of Yorktown might have ended differently had not fungi contributed their part in preventing supplies from "These supplies were delayed because the ships bringing them were forced to refit at New York before proceeding southward. The fungus-rotted timbers of the British fleet were no match for a crippling storm encountered at sea.

Highlights Of Farm Life

By W. F. Whiteside
Cook Co. Asst. Farm Advisor

William F. Whiteside

Coo. County Ass't Farm Adviser

The task of tabulating the 4-H membership is now complete. In agricultural 4-H club work we have 507 boys and girls enrolled in 895 projects. There are 33 adult volunteer leaders and 11 junior leaders contributing considerable time and effort in guiding these 4-H'ers in 22 community 4-H clubs. Mrs. Jessie Coulter, ass't home adviser, tells me that there are over 850 girls enrolled in home economics 4-H work. This gives a total of 1,350 4-H'ers in Cook county. Cook county 4-H members the highest total ever attained. were well represented at the district Share-The-Fun festivals. Of the three acts and mistress of ceremonies, one act was selected to go to the Illinois state fair, one act was in the Blue ribbon group and the M. C. plus another act received honorable mention. Charlene Marrs of Steger, received a participation ribbon. The state fair selection was a rather unique dance by girls of the Clever Clover 4-H club of Arlington Heights.

Everyone who has had anything to do with 4-H club work in this county can be proud of that fact. Many of you will ask—what are the figures for South Cook county? The membership is almost evenly divided, giving approximately 675 members in South Cook.

You can see the results of the labor of these 4-H members by visiting the South Cook-4-H Fair in Chicago Heights on Aug. 17, 18 and 19. You will enjoy it. And, the 4-H'ers will be proud to show you their project work.

National Farm Safety Week is July 22-28. Farm folks are urged to check and double check the rules of safe operation of machinery. Remember slow moving machinery on the highway is especially dangerous. The driver of that new high horsepower car does not realize you are traveling less than 20 miles an hour.

Farm Labor Placement Manager Bob Henricks, was in to see me today. He told me that temporary laborers for tomato picking might be scarce. If you do not have sufficient help for tomato harvest, contact the office in Harvey. Do this early to allow sufficient time for Mr. Henricks to contact states to the north for us, where the laborers will be finishing the seasonable work up there.

Can you visualize a gallon jug of water and 12 kernels of corn? It takes that much water to produce those 12 kernels. We average about 4000 tons of rainfall per acre per year. It takes 2000 tons of water per acre to grow a 100 bushel crop of corn. We have been fortunate to get rainfall as needed this year. The subsoil is still short of moisture. Let us hope that we continue to get frequent rains. Do not arrange to buy that new piece of machinery on the prospects of this year's crop. Sufficient rain properly spread out over the next two months will be most welcome, and almost a necessity.

A note to agricultural 4-H members. The keeping-fit field day will be held Friday, July 20 at 9 a.m. at the Carl Sandburg high school athletic field, 131st Street and Route 45. The field day is set up to show you ways to build up and maintain physical fitness. You will go through a series of physical tests to measure fitness. You will also learn the fundamentals of tumbling. Bring your parents and lunch to the keeping-fit field day.

Good prices for early lambs in 1956 make the breeding ewe project especially attractive for Illinois 4-H Club members who have or can get the proper facilities for taking care of their flocks.

Farmers are using five times as much nitrogen as they used 15 years ago, but less lime.

Washington News Letter

LOBBYING AND LOBBYISTS

Most lobbyists are decent, honest, respectable citizens. They are well-equipped by nature, education, social and political background to hold their heads up in any company.

All national associations—labor organizations, manufacturers, bankers, farm organizations, educational organizations, medical organizations, etc.—maintain lobbyists and lobbyist headquarters in Washington. There is nothing wrong or underhanded about lobbying per se. In fact, lobbyists serve a very useful function. They watch all legislation, study and analyze bills, police the interests of their respective organizations, and point out to the members of congress just how proposed legislation will affect their organizations. In legal language a lobbyist is a special pleader.

The writer has held public office for 34 years—8 years as city commissioner, 6 years as state senator, and 20 years as congressman. During those 34 years he has never been offered a bribe by a lobbyist.

Lobbying as such is a respectable, highly paid profession, a useful and honorable occupation, considered as such by most legislators.

THE MAKE-UP OF CONGRESS

Congress is a true cross-section of the American people. Its members represent all sections of the United States, different professions, different vocations, and different backgrounds.

Of the 96 senators, 55 are lawyers, eight are farmers, seven are newspaper and magazine writers, four real estate and insurance, one a graduate in engineering, and one a labor leader. The other are classified as former state and local public officials.

The house has a more diversified membership. Out of a total of 435 members, 240 are lawyers, 19 are farmers, 49 are businessmen and manufacturers, 24 are educators, five are bankers, 23 are journalists, four are doctors, four are labor leaders, six have been former Congressional secretaries, two are accountants, and three are advertising men.

There are 16 women representatives and one woman senator.

THE ETERNAL VERITIES

Time marches on. Sensible public officials learn from past experience. Sound-thinking people know that unless they adhere to age-old, time-tested, fundamental principles, the nation will be overwhelmed by taxation, broken down by a huge public debt, or drowned by the rising tide of Communism, or by all three.

When Adam and Eve were banished from the Garden of Eden, they were sentenced to live henceforth by "the sweat of their brow." Today some folks, with their heads in the clouds, think they can get food, clothing, and houses by legislation. They think "the government owes it to them."

Prosperity, contentment, happiness cannot be secured through the enactment of laws; they must be earned. Legislation cannot satisfy hunger.

A certain Roman emperor in the year A.D. 304 sought to solve the people's ills by legislation, price-fixing, government controls. He failed and every government that has tried it since has failed.

To have we must produce. To produce we must work. Life is made up largely of work and sweat and careful spending.

FAMILY INCOMES IN 1955

Twenty-three million American families had incomes above $5,090 in 1955. The average American family had an income of $5,520 and paid $540 in Federal taxes. Two million American families stepped over the line during the year from below the $5,000 income bracket to above the $5,000 bracket.

Prosperity is here, not around the corner. It is here under a Republican administration.

Names Elgin Man to Farm Loan Committee

George F. Klein, Jr., of Elgin, is the new member of the Farmers Home Administration Cook county committee, Robert C. Becker, county supervisor has announced. Mr. Klein's appointment became effective July 1. The committee on which he will serve determines the eligibility of local farmers who apply for Farmers Home Administration loans.

The new committeeman operates a dairy farm near Elgin; and succeeds Howard G. Rahlfs of Elgin, whose term expired this year. The other two members are Harvey H. Pohlman and Harold D. Bergman, both of Palatine.

Each agricultural county in the country has a similar committee of three members who are responsible for determining loan applicants' eligibility, certifying the value of farms being purchased or improved through Farmers Home Administration loans, and making recommendations on loan approvals and loan servicing actions.

Each member is named for a 3-year term and one appointment expires each year. A member completing his 3-year term cannot succeed himself. At least two of the members must be farmers.

The committee works with the county supervisor in connection with all types of loans. These include farm operating loans and loans to buy, improve, or enlarge efficient family-type farms in this area. They also include loans to farmers or their non-profit associations to establish and carry on approved soil and water conservation practices including improving permanent pastures, terracing, soil erosion measures, farmstead water systems, irrigation, drainage, and many other conservation practices.

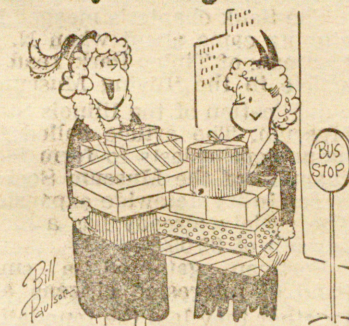

Most of the soil and water conservation loans and loans to buy or improve farms are made from funds advanced by private lenders and insured by the agency. Some of these loans, however, and all loans for operating farms, are made from appropriated funds.

No loan of any type can be approved for an applicant whose credit needs can be handled adequately by other credit sources.

The regular office staff of the Farmers Home Administration serving Cook county consists of the County Supervisor, Robert C. Becker, and his assistant Lawrence L. Dierzen. The office is located at 101½ E. Jackson St., Woodstock, and serves Cook, DuPage, Lake, McHenry, Boone, Kane and DeKalb counties.

This season, opines the Pineville (La.) News, women's hats, like G.I. clothes, apparently come only in two sizes -- too large and too small.

Tinley Natural History Group Joins State Museum Society

Turning ideas and enthusiasm into action, a small group of citizens of the Tinley Park area of Illinois near Chicago has turned a struggling nature organization into the thriving first local chapter of the Illinois State Museum society.

The Sauk Natural History society, formed in March and originally comprised of only five members, has annexed itself to the statewide natural history organization as its first chapter.

The Sauk chapter's meager beginning came about when N. C. Fortman, of Tinley Park, read an article in the "Living Museum," a publication of the Illinois State Museum. The article called for nature enthusiasts to form local chapters of the Museum Society to aid in its statewide expansion. The society already has a membership of 32,000.

Fortman gathered a small band of interested citizens and together they laid the foundation for the Sauk Natural History society. From five members, membership has now passed the 50 mark with an outlook for four times as many by the year's end.

The Sauk chapter, which covers half a dozen communities in the Tinley Park area, features movies, illustrated lectures by outstanding scientists, and field trips in search of fossils, hard-to-find plants and other noteworthy finds of interest to natural history laymen. Meetings are held twice monthly.

Collections of fossils and plants have already begun in earnest, with neighborhood merchants offering their store windows as exhibition places for the discoveries made by the Sauk members.

With the cooperation of other officials, the group has expanded its operations and will continue to expand, according to Milton D. Thompson, assistant director of the Illinois State Museum and executive secretary of the Museum society.

"With continued success," he said today, "it does not seem out of reason that the Sauk Chapter can eventually have its own community museum made up of materials gathered by its members."

He noted that a chapter of the Museum Society can be divided into such groups as geology, botany, zoology, anthropology, history and astronomy to cover the interests of most people in natural history.

Thompson said the creation of such worthwhile groups such as the Sauk chapter is a definite asset to the members, their community and the state as well.

"I can only hope," he said, "that other parts of the state can represent themselves as well as our Tinley Park chapter in laying the foundation for a better Illinois based upon the interest in natural history by its citizens."

Public Aid In Illinois Shows Drop for May

The Illinois public aid caseload report for May showed a decrease of 11,470 recipients from the same month last year and 4,826 fewer persons than during April 1956.

Garrett W. Keaster, executive secretary of the Illinois public aid commission, said the May caseload totaled 271,759 persons at an overall cost of $12,756,966, or $28,669 less than the previous month. For April 1956 there was a load of 276,576 persons costing $12,785,626. In May 1955 the rolls had a total of 283,220 persons costing $12,765,761, or $8,795 more than the same month this year.

The May general assistance load of 72,049 persons was 10,307 less than the April load of 82,356 and 23,596 less than the May 1955 total of 95,645. State-wide seasonal employment opportunities plus mass transfer of recipients of this program to the federally-aided programs of aid to dependent children and disability assistance accounted for this substantial decrease in May, Keaster said. General assistance expenditures in May amounted to $2,765,419 for an average cost per recipient of $38.38. This represents a decrease of $313,619 from the April cost of $3,079,038 and a decrease of $563,077 from May 1955 expenditures of $3,328,496.

The number of Old Age recipients fell to 91,744 persons, 366 less than the April total of 92,110 and 4,498 less than the May 1955 total of 96,242. Expenditures dropped to $5,566,328 for an average of $60.99 per recipient. This total cost was $8,329 less than the April cost of $5,557,999 and $353,021 less than the May 1955 total of $5,919,345.

The May Blind Assistance recipient load was 3,469 persons, which is nine less than the total of 3,478 in April and 101 less than the May 1955 total of 3,570. Expenditures in May amounted to $233,209 for an average cost per recipient of $67.38. This cost was $2,023 less than the April total of $235,232 and $9,162 less than the $242,371 total of May 1955.

Disability Assistance grants totaling $794,769 went to 9,484 persons during May for an average of $84.14 per recipient. This increase of 1,986 persons over the April load of 7,498 and of 3,425 persons over the May 1955 total of 6,059, was paralleled by an increase of $184,361 over April costs of $610,408 and by $305,044 over the May 1955 cost of $489,725.

The total number of recipients of the aid to dependent children program rose to 98,583 persons in May, 3,001 more than shown in the April total of 95,582 and 16,859 more than the May 1955 total of 81,724. Expenditures in May amounted to $3,397,241 for an average of $34.48 per person. The amount was an increase of $94,292 over April costs of $3,302,949 and of $611,421 over May 1955 costs of $2,785,820.

Business and Finance

Maurice P. Angland

Securities on the major stock exchanges continue to advance in price regardless of the steel strike which is expected to last about a month. Its settlement is expected to increase steel prices in the neighborhood of $10.00 per ton.

Business statistics have been very good and prospects for the foreseeable future are good. However, it is likely investors are aware of the likelihood of further depreciation of dollar purchasing power. Selected common stock are about the only vehicle of investment which will keep abreast of change in purchasing power.

The New York Stock Exchange has completed a study of 86,000 transactions in the month of March. For the first time, women owners of stock outnumber men by a ratio of 52 per cent to 48 per cent. Increasing numbers are from smaller cities and towns with a dwindling of the dominance of the big cities. The $5,000 - $10,000 income group accounts for 26 per cent of transactions and the $10,000 to $25,000 group for 36 per cent. It was also found that the age group bracket has changed considerably with the under 40 group now accounting for 16 per cent of transactions. In previous studies, the under 40 group were very much less important. Borrowing to buy stocks—so called margin trading—is very minor.

It is obvious that more and more people are studying the financial histories of our corporations seeking suitable investments for their savings.

Two main basic roots of inflationary tendencies are discernible. The first is the industry-wide labor union, headed by leaders with power to bring about industry-wide strikes. Competition for power in these tremendous organizations, causes the leaders to seek to outdo each other in raising employment costs in their respective industries.

The second "root" is the Full Employment act of 1946 under which the Federal Reserve Board is directed to increase money supply (or credit) to insure full employment of the labor force. Without this act, continued increase of employment costs would have the natural result of pricing some people out of their jobs, even tho temporarily. It takes more and more dollars to cover ever rising costs and prices if industry's full output is to be purchased.

It is doubtful that either of the political parties would care to sponsor repeal of the Full Employment Act. The CIO is generally credited with sponsorship of this legislation. "Liberals" protest any tightening of money, altho those living on fixed salaries, pensions and with bonds, etc. are hurt by decreased dollar purchasing power.

The country's money supply—people's bank deposits subject to check plus pocket cur—was in 1940. This is equivalent to rency—was in 1955 on a per capita basis, 2.7 times what it an increase of 68 per cent compounded annually.

WINGED BOMBERS

Small flying demons such as bees, wasps and mosquitoes can peck a tremendous wallop. Insect bites and stings, besides causing swelling and pain, can become infected through scratching. Warns the Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Co. Always remove the "sting" if it is still present. A paste prepared by mixing baking soda and cold cream or a compress dampened with water of ammonia provides relief. Cold applications will also ease the pain. For the itching of mosquito and chigger bites, calamine lotion is beneficial.

The most extraordinary example of courtesy to come to its attention, reports the Brantford (Ont. Can.) Expositor, was the case of the motorist who held the flashlight so the policeman could write out his ticket.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Happy Independence Day! If you spend part of the day in your car, you taste a kind of independence with a special meaning in our modern time.

You're independent of time tables and, generally, of the weather. You're free of restrictions on luggage and pets.

You're on your own — with no time-consuming layovers unless you plan them yourself.

You're free to start at five in the morning, if you like... free to eat when and where you please... stop to look at whatever strikes your fancy.

You're free to choose your route of travel and rate of speed—in fast traffic on super highways or at your own speed on country lanes.

You can be as independent as a pioneer and a lot more comfortable. You can take a sleeping bag and a canoe, or a radio and an outboard motor. And you have them with you when you want them, with no chance of delay in delivery at your destination.

You're free to change your plans anytime. And if you do, you're free of the need to have tickets exchanged or to arrange for refunds.

Best of all, you're free of extra expense. Your car carries extra passengers at no extra fare, and the more you travel, the lower the cost per mile.

Great Company

Lesson for July 22, 1956

MAN is not made for loneliness. He not only feels incomplete when circumstances force him for a time to live alone; he is actually incomplete. It is only through existence with others that we arrive at our true selves. People who have never thought this through know it by a kind of instinct. That is why there are so many organizations and societies and fraternities and groups of innumerable sorts in the world. Even when an organization has no very important reason for its existence, its members just like to get together.

Dr. Foreman

The Great Company

Of all groups of human beings, the greatest is the "great company" we call the Church. Belonging to it is more than joining another organization. It is more than any denomination, more than any existing list of members, even if you put all the members of all the churches into one master-list. The writer to the Hebrews, thinking of the heroes of faith, does not think of them as past-and-gone saints. They live now; they are the great "cloud of witnesses"—the cheering grandstand, we may dare to say—in whose presence our own race is being run. They are living members of the Fraternity of Faith. All those who have dreamed God's dreams after him, all who have looked beyond their times to the heavenly city yet to be, all who have toiled to make this world a bit more like the world of God's intention, who have by faith seen what God promised and greeted it from afar; these make up the company to which every man and woman is invited; these are the light-bearers, the builders, to whose fellowship every Christian belongs. Men of faith often have to live lonely lives; they can be misunderstood, imprisoned, tortured and killed; but they take heart, knowing that they do not stand alone.

Marching With the Heroes

For some persons, precise accuracy of belief is what makes a good Christian. Surely accuracy of belief is a good thing. To say the least of it, there is no point in believing what isn't so, or not believing what is so. But from the standpoint of this letter to the Hebrews, indeed from the standpoint of Jesus himself, accuracy of belief and completeness of understanding are not the last word in what makes a Christian. Faith, in the way the word meets us in the famous 11th chapter of Hebrews, is not voting "aye" to a set of propositions. Faith is doing something for man and God. It can be expressed in the slogan, "Expect great things from God; attempt great things for God." Faith of this rousing, robust kind is more than thinking, it is doing. It is thinking too; faith certainly is no substitute for thought. Reading the stories of the men and women the writer to the Hebrews lists in his roll-call of faith, one finds them planning ahead, working, fighting, never blindly but with the determination that comes from a thinking faith. Heroes think, plan, believe; but also heroes DO. It is the doing that makes them heroic. So the Great Company is a marching, fighting company, marching at God's orders, fighting God's war.

Supermen?

Thinking about such things, and such men, has put iron into the blood of many weaker men and women, struggling through their own battles on this earth. But it has a discouraging side, too. These men—Abraham, Moses, all the rest, and all the others that Christian history can name—these heroes of faith were supermen, we feel. Quite out of our class. In such a company, many a humble Christian feels like a boy who can't do simple arithmetic being elected by accident to a Mathematical Society, or a boy twelve years old suddenly finding himself in the middle of a football game between Notre Dame and Texas. It's embarrassing. But no—that is a mistake. The men named to that Roll-Call of Faith were not really supermen. Indeed some of them felt so small that they tried to resign before God elected them. By themselves they would have been no more remarkable than ourselves. For after all, it was not their faith, or their character, or their power, that made them; it was the God in whom they had that faith, who made them. And God still makes men!

That "Sign and Cheat" Business Taboo Under Soil Bank Rules

There may be some farmers who may endeavor to sign an agreement, with the idea that they will ignore the agreement and harvest the crop if harvesting appears more profitable by the final date.

Conrad Borms, office manager, of the Will County ASC, 564 No. Chicago St., Joliet, says that the regulations of the soil bank imposes a civil penalty if the acreage reserve is knowingly and willfully grazed or if a crop is harvested from the acreage in violation of the agreement.

A civil penalty equal to 50 percent of the compensation that would otherwise be payable for compliance with the agreement could be imposed. Therefore, farmers should not willfully try to violate the intent of the program. If, after signing an agreement, farmers find that they will not carry out the agreement within a reasonable extent they should cancel or file an amended agreement by the July 20 closing date.

POISON IVY

The unwary or thoughtless home gardener may wind up with a case of poison ivy that can make the "seven year itch" seem a blessing, safety experts warn. Skin protection without the use of cumbersome clothing or gloves can be achieved, they say, by using one of the special barrier ointments. Air tight tubes will prevent any deterioration of ointments for many gardening seasons.

Sportabout

by
JACK MAYPOLE

You may wonder why we write about boating so often.

It comes naturally because we, our friends and family have been boating enthusiasts for years, even during the lean ones. We found in it then what millions are finding today.

We write about it because it is the fastest growing sport and recreation in the country today and because it now has come to everyone, regardless of income or place of residence. Boat trailers can be found from bungalows to palaces, in cities and on farms ranging in size from the Little Dudes to the big Gators.

A national magazine article recently pointed out that even in dry Nevada ranchers tow their outboards across the deserts to get in on boating at such artificial lakes as that created by Hoover dam.

In this article it was cited that this year there are 5,537,000 pleasure boats on the waters and that 4,175,000 of them are outboards. And the midwest is the hotspot of outboard enthusiasm today.

As boating is in the growing stage it is a lot like the early days on the road with automobiles. Everyone you pass seems to have a friendly wave. If you break down the first boat past will heave to and those aboard will want to help. It was this way on the highways once until the motorists spoiled it for themselves.

We hope sincerely that the highway attitude never develops on the waterways. The boat traveler has a better chance to remain clam. A great measure of personal safety prevails on the water where hitchhiking is practically unknown and holdups, if they do happen, become piracy which carries a real stiff sentence.

However with boating growing the way it is some restraining

"See-For-Yourself"

Tests Show How to Double Corn Yields

"SEE-for-yourself" demonstrations have shown 166 Minnesota farmers how they can more than double the state average corn yield by better management practices, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in citing results of the 1955 Minnesota Extra Yield Corn Contest.

"These participating farmers averaged 107 bushels of corn per acre last year, compared to the statewide average of 49 bushels per acre," says the committee.

"In the contest, the farmers are trying for themselves on their own farms newer and better corn growing practices to find the combination that works best for them.

"They have found that the greatest single lesson was the need for a high corn stalk population to match the fertility of their soils.

"In 1955, as in 1954, most of the farmers found they could profitably use $20 or more worth of fertilizer on fields where check plots made up to 100 bushels per acre.

"All of the ideas and practices used by other farmers and in demonstration plots may not work for any given farmer, but it is definitely worth while to try out new ideas that will help cut costs of production, get higher yields and produce better quality product."

legislation is bound to crop up. Just how much there will be depends on the boat owners more than anyone else.

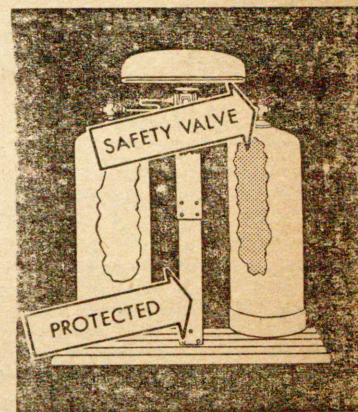

Following consistent safety practices and following the "do unto others" rule will keep restrictions at a minimum. The less accidents, the less uproar, the fewer laws will be needed.

ed by the gimlet-eyes to beat the drum in support of the blue ballot that is to be handed out to the voters in November.

The gimlet-eyes, in case an explanation is required are the pros, the politicians and special interests representatives who are forever prospecting for additional sources of revenue to keep bureaus functioning, fatten patronage lists assure subsidies and acquire those other ingredients so essential to turning out a batch of gravy.
The blue ballot carries a proposed amendment to the Illinois constitution which would permit the general assembly practically a free hand in writing new revenue laws. The color of the ballot is quite appropriate as the sky is apparently the limit as far as tax legislation is concerned and people would be singing such after the new laws were in force.

Giving legislators a free hand to write tax laws is like turning a crowd of 8-year-old youngsters loose in a combination ice cream and candy store with an invitation to help themselves.

Someone is going to get a stomach ache. In the case of the children it would be some of them. In the case of the tax laws it would be you.
The amendment up for adoption this year is the same as was defeated four years ago. It should be defeated again this year.
The amendment gives the legislature too much scope for new taxes and at the same time retain those now in force. It says there will not be a "graduated income tax" but there is nothing in the amendment which would prevent enactment of a flat tax on incomes and there is little doubt but that such a measure would be among those adopted.
One may say that this is an assumption on our part but in looking over tax legislation enacted over the country at large one could not say that such an assumption is unwarranted.
It has been the history that once a governing body has a new means to fill its coffers it is preserved thereafter, not as a substitute but as an additional levy.

Placing Registers

Warm air heating from floor registers located at outside walls is more satisfactory and economical than from high wall registers, according to latest research at the University of Illinois.
Heat from the perimeter or outside edge of the room is better distributed at all levels and less concentrated at the ceiling.
This increases comfort and reduces heat loss thru the ceiling.

The Helping Hands 4H club met July 14 at the home of their leader, Mrs. Leroy A. Bauman, with 7 members and one guest, Donna Martin, present.

Plans were made for a local achievement day to be held July 30 at 7:30 in the Tinley Park Methodist church basement, when an opportunity will be given parents and friends of the club to see what has been done this year.

Talks were given by Helen Jeffrey on milk, and by Shirley Yorker on jello salad. All the girls practiced judging foods and garments made by members.

The Clover Belles 4-H club of Tinley Park met July 9 in the home of Marjorie and Carol Kimmel at which time the local achievement meeting was planned.

It will be held in the home of Marjorie Andres, July 23.

At the July 9 meeting Marjorie Andres and Patty Grote demonstrated making a Foundation cake; Marjorie Kimmel, making a funny cake; Carol Kimmel, Butterscotch cookies; Janet Darby and Maureen Philippo and Sharon Aast, the making of baking powder biscuits.
Beverly Bettenhausen explained some handcraft. Barbara Schilling told how to make and use salads.

A vote was taken for the 4H king and queen, Marjorie, Carol and their mother Mrs. John Kimmel served refreshments.

Industrial Land Near Loop Sells For Good Price

(Community News Service)

The high value of industrial land near the loop was demonstrated in a land sale approved today by the city council's plan-committee okayed the sale of nine and one quarter acres of land in the area bounded by Roosevelt Road, Canal Street, Polk Street and the South Expressway for $951,641.

The land originally acquired by the Chicago land clearance commission in one of the nation's first slum-clearance project. The council's planning committee approved sale of the land to 10 wholesale and manufacturing firms at an average price of 32.39 a square foot.

Land clearance commission officials say that in the suburbs industrial land seldom brings more than 75 cents a square foot and that even choice industrial land in Skokie sells for 50 to 60 cents a square foot.

The land clearance commission paid $3.40 a square foot to condemn the property but the federal government will pay two thirds of the $400,000 loss sustained in the resale. The commission stands to lose another 600-thousand dollars when it sells the 17 acres it has acquired. That loss will also be partly made up by federal funds.

The largest amount of land that went to any single purchaser, about two and one half acres, will go to the Webb-Linn Printing Co.

All the companies will be required to put up buildings on their new property within six months to a year after final approval of the sale is given by the city council.

Resident of South Africa Here on Visit

Mrs. Norma Acheson is an American who has been living in Southern Rhodesia, Africa for the past eight years. She is visiting her mother, Mrs. Lou Butler, 6811 Hickory st., in Tinley Park with her son Jeffrey, 5, and plans to return to Salisbury,

Mrs. Acheson

Southern Rhodesia in October.
Before visiting America, Mrs.
Acheson made a trip around the world.

Southern Rhodesia is not much different from the United States. English speaking residents make up the bulk of the population. Buses are of the double-decker type. The weather is much more humid than in this part of the states, she said.

Her son Jeffrey's only comment was: "I would like to see my dog."

Mager too Much Tinley Park Police League Nine For Mokena Takes Chicago Heights 9 to 4

Al Mager's stuff was too potent for the Mokena Babe Ruth batsmen Tuesday night. He shut them off with four hits and Frankfort won 5 to 1. Mokena's Del Yunker also turned in a good mound job, holding Frankfort to five hits.

Mager fanned 15, walked three and was especially sharp with a man on base.

Mokena's only run came in the sixth inning when Haehnlein beat out a perfect bunt, stole second and then third. On his steal to third, Schram let the ball get away from him and Haehnlein scored.

Yunker also allowed three walks and struck out six. Frankfort scored three of its runs in the sixth on a single, an error, a walk and a passed ball. Frankfort scored its first run in the third and another in the fourth.
